More information will follow in subsequent flyers. At this time, the convention committee is deciding on speakers and a schedule. If you pre-register, you will be provided with this information before the date of the convention.

PRE-REGISTRATION (WHY IT MAKES SENSE)

Full Registration includes the Basic Registration (attendance at all convention speakers and workshops) along with the Saturday Banquet.

This year's Saturday evening sit-down banquet will be just as wonderful as last year. There will only be a limited amount of these banquet tickets available for sale the weekend of the convention. Therefore, get the full registration by January 1st and you can attend the banquet at a discounted rate.

Also, the pre-registration merchandise is only available through pre-registration. You will not be able to purchase these items at any other time. The snuggly fleece blanket will be a one of a kind warm and fuzzy keepsake. The hooded nylon jacket is fully kasha lined and has an embroidered emblem. These items must be ordered by January 1, 2010.

In addition, pre-registration is strongly encouraged in order to help the committee estimate the number of participants at the convention and to assure that the convention runs as smoothly as possible.
